12. Therefore it shall come to pass, if you give heed to these judgments, and keep, and do them, that Hashem your Elohim shall keep with you the covenant and the mercy which he swore to your fathers; 13. And he will love you, and bless you, and multiply you; he will also bless the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your land, your grain, and your wine, and your oil, the produce of your cows, and the flocks of your sheep, in the land which he swore to your fathers to give you. 14. You shall be blessed above all people; there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle. 15. And Hashem will take away from you all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, upon you; but will lay them upon all those who hate you. 16. And you shall destroy all the people which Hashem your Elohim shall deliver you; your eye shall have no pity upon them; neither shall you serve their gods; for that will be a snare to you. 17. If you shall say in your heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them? 18. You shall not be afraid of them; but shall well remember what Hashem your Elohim did to Pharaoh, and to all Egypt; 19. The great trials which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby Hashem your Elohim brought you out; so shall Hashem your Elohim do to all the people of whom you are afraid. 20. Moreover Hashem your Elohim will send the hornet among them, until those who are left, and hide themselves from you, are destroyed. 21. You shall not be frightened by them; for Hashem your Elohim is among you, a mighty Elohim and awesome. 22. And Hashem your Elohim will clear away those nations before you, little by little; you may not destroy them at once, lest the beasts of the field grow numerous upon you. 23. But Hashem your Elohim shall deliver them to you, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they are destroyed. 24. And he shall deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall destroy their name from under heaven; there shall no man be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them. 25. The engraved images of their gods shall you burn with fire; you shall not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it to you, lest you be snared there; for it is an abomination to Hashem your Elohim. 26. Neither shall you bring an abomination into your house, lest you become accursed like it; but you shall utterly detest it, and loathe it; for it is a cursed thing.

Chapter 8

1. All the commandments which I command you this day shall you take care to do, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which Hashem swore to your fathers. 2. And you shall remember all the way which Hashem your Elohim led you these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, and to prove you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or not. 3. And he humbled you, and let you hunger, and fed you with manna, which you knew not, neither did your fathers know; that he might make you know that man does not live by bread only, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of Hashem does man live. 4. Your garment did not grow old upon you, nor did your foot swell, these forty years. 5. You shall also consider in your heart, that, as a man chastens his son, so Hashem your Elohim chastened you. 6. Therefore you shall keep the commandments of Hashem your Elohim, to walk in his ways, and to fear him. 7. For Hashem your Elohim brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills; 8. A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of olive oil, and honey; 9. A land where you shall eat bread without scarceness, you shall not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig bronze. 10. When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless Hashem your Elohim for the good land which he has given you.

11. Beware that you forget not Hashem your Elohim, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command you this day; 12. Lest when you have eaten and are full, and have built goodly houses, and lived there; 13. And when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied; 14. Then your heart be lifted up, and you forget Hashem your Elohim, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery; 15. Who led you through that great and terrible wilderness, where were venomous serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought you water out of the rock of flint; 16. Who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers knew not, that he might humble you, and that he might test you, to do you good in the end; 17. And you say in your heart, My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth. 18. And you shall remember Hashem your Elohim; for he is who gives you power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he swore to your fathers, as it is this day. 19. And it shall be, if you do forget Hashem your Elohim, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I warn you solemnly this day that you shall surely perish. 20. Like the nations which Hashem destroys before your face, so shall you perish; because you would not be obedient to the voice of Hashem your Elohim.

Chapter 9

1. Hear, O Israel; You are to pass over the Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to heaven, 2. A people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you have heard say, Who can stand before the sons of Anak! 3. Understand therefore this day, that Hashem your Elohim is he who goes over before you; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before your face; so shall you drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as Hashem has said to you.

4. Do not say in your heart, after Hashem your Elohim has cast them out before you, For my righteousness Hashem has brought me in to possess this land; but for the wickedness of these nations Hashem has driven them out from before you. 5. Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations Hashem your Elohim drives them out from before you, and that he may confirm the word which Hashem swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 6. Understand therefore, that Hashem your Elohim gives you not this good land to possess it for your righteousness; for you are a stiffnecked people. 7. Remember, and forget not, how you provoked Hashem your Elohim to anger in the wilderness; from the day when you departed out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against Hashem. 8. Also in Horeb you provoked Hashem to wrath, so that Hashem was so angry with you that he was ready to destroy you. 9. When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which Hashem made with you, then I stayed in the mount forty days and forty nights, I did not eat bread nor drink water; 10. And Hashem delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of Elohim; and on them was written according to all the words, which Hashem spoke with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. 11. And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that Hashem gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant. 12. And Hashem said to me, Arise, get down quickly from here; for your people, which you have brought out of Egypt, have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made themselves a molten image. 13. Furthermore Hashem spoke to me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people; 14. Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they. 15. So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire; and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. 16. And I looked, and, behold, you had sinned against Hashem your Elohim, and had made yourselves a molten calf; you had turned aside quickly from the way which Hashem had commanded you. 17. And I took the two tablets, and threw them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes. 18. And I fell down before Hashem, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I did not eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which you sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of Hashem, to provoke him to anger. 19. For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, with which Hashem was angry against you to destroy you. But Hashem listened to me at that time also. 20. And Hashem was so very angry with Aaron that he was ready to destroy him; and I prayed for Aaron also the same time. 21. And I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire, and crushed it, and ground it very small, until it was as small as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that descended from the mount. 22. And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-Hattaavah, you provoked Hashem to anger. 23. Likewise when Hashem sent you from Kadesh-Barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then you rebelled against the commandment of Hashem your Elohim, and you believed him not, nor listened to his voice. 24. You have been rebellious against Hashem from the day that I knew you. 25. Thus I fell down before Hashem forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because Hashem had said he would destroy you. 26. I prayed therefore to Hashem, and said, O Hashem Elohim, destroy not your people and your inheritance, whom you have redeemed through your greatness, whom you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 27. Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin; 28. Lest the land from which you brought us out say, Because Hashem was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. 29. Yet they are your people and your inheritance, which you brought out by your mighty power and by your stretched out arm.

1. At that time Hashem said to me, Cut two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to me into the mount, and make an ark of wood. 2. And I will write on the tablets the words that were in the first tablets which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark. 3. And I made an ark of shittim wood, and cut two tablets of stone like the first, and went up to the mount, having the two tablets in my hand. 4. And he wrote on the tablets, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which Hashem spoke to you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and Hashem gave them to me. 5. And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they are, as Hashem commanded me. 6. And the people of Israel took their journey from Beeroth Bnei-Jaakan to Mosera; there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his place. 7. From there they journeyed to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of streaming brooks. 8. At that time Hashem set apart the tribe of Levi, to carry the ark of the covenant of Hashem, to stand before Hashem to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day. 9. Therefore Levi has no part nor inheritance with his brothers; Hashem is his inheritance, according to what Hashem your Elohim promised him. 10. And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and Hashem listened to me at that time also, and Hashem would not destroy you. 11. And Hashem said to me, Arise, go on your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I swore to their fathers to give to them.

12. And now, Israel, what does Hashem your Elohim require of you, but to fear Hashem your Elohim, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve Hashem your Elohim with all your heart and with all your soul, 13. To keep the commandments of Hashem, and his statutes, which I command you this day for your good? 14. Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is Hashem's your Elohim, the earth also, with all that is in it. 15. Only Hashem took delight in your fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, you above all people, as it is this day. 16. Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked. 17. For Hashem your Elohim is Elohim of gods, and Hashem of lords, a great Elohim, mighty and awesome, which favors no person, nor takes bribes; 18. He executes the judgment of the orphan and widow, and loves the stranger, giving him food and garment. 19. Love you therefore the stranger; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. 20. You shall fear Hashem your Elohim; him shall you serve, and to him shall you hold fast, and swear by his name. 21. He is your praise, and he is your Elohim, who has done for you these great and awesome things, which your eyes have seen. 22. Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons; and now Hashem your Elohim has made you as the stars of heaven for multitude.

Chapter 11

1. Therefore you shall love Hashem your Elohim, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, always. 2. And know this day; for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of Hashem your Elohim, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm, 3. And his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and to all his land; 4. And what he did to the army of Egypt, to their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red Sea overflow them as they pursued after you, and how Hashem has destroyed them till this day; 5. And what he did to you in the wilderness, until you came into this place; 6. And what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben; how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the goods that were in their possession, in the midst of all Israel; 7. But your eyes have seen all the great acts of Hashem which he did. 8. Therefore shall you keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land, which you are going over to possess; 9. And that you may prolong your days in the land, which Hashem swore to your fathers to give to them and to their seed, a land that flows with milk and honey.

 לֵאמֹר לָהֶם כִּי־יָמֵי הַשָּׁמַיִם עַל־הָאָרֶץ: ס

10. For the land, which you enter to possess, is not as the land of Egypt, from where you came out, where you sowed your seed, and watered it with your foot, as a garden of vegetables; 11. But the land, which you are going over to possess, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinks water from the rain of the skies; 12. A land which Hashem your Elohim cares for; the eyes of Hashem your Elohim are always upon it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year. 13. And it shall come to pass, if you shall give heed diligently to my commandments which I command you this day, to love Hashem your Elohim, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, 14. That I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, and your wine, and your oil. 15. And I will send grass in your fields for your cattle, that you may eat and be full. 16. Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; 17. And then Hashem's anger be kindled against you, and he closed the skies, that there should be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest you perish quickly from off the good land which Hashem gives you. 18. Therefore shall you lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. 19. And you shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. 20. And you shall write them upon the door posts of your house, and upon your gates; 21. That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which Hashem swore to your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.
